VFW ELIGIBILITY GUIDE

The following is to be used as a guide in determining eligibility for membership and is furnished as a matter of information concerning the periods during which eligible service occurred.

Eligibility for membership in the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States is based on:

- A. Honorable service in the Armed Forces of the United States performed by Officers or enlisted personnel
- B. Who have served in any foreign war, insurrection, or expedition, which service is recognized by the award of a campaign or service medal of the United States
- C. Who served in Korea as outlined in the following guide
- D. Who earned Hostile Fire or Imminent Danger Pay
- E. Persons still serving in the armed forces may be accepted for membership provided that they meet eligibility requirements.

Proof of service to establish eligibility for membership rests with the applicant.

The following is a guide in determining eligibility and may be updated by the VFW.
